From Saturday Auguſt 13, to Tueſday Auguſt 16, 1748.

Petersbourg, July 16.

HER Imperial Majeſty is expected to go to Moſcow this Winter with her whole Court, notwithſtanding that the Quarter of that Town, where her Imperial Majeſty uſed to reſide, is entirely burnt, except her own Palace.

Berlin, Aug. 17, N. S. The King of Pruſſia is returned to Potzdam, and, it is ſaid, is to make a Tour into Sileſia at the latter End of the Month. M. Valori, the French Miniſter, is now at Potzdam on his Return to France.

Aix, Aug. 21, N. S. M. St. Severin is expected here this Evening from Compeigne.

Hague, Aug. 23, N. S. The Magiſtrates of Amſterdam have iſſued a Declaration, in which they ſay, that though they might have looked upon the Petition which was lately preſented to them by a Deputation from the Burghers, as a Thing that deſerved no Manner of Regard, ſince it was ſigned by no Body, and the Original of it was never ſhewn to them; yet they were willing, for this once only, to believe what the Deputies aſſerted; and to tell them, in Anſwer to the firſt Article, that they had already, by their Deputies, adjuſted with the Prince of Orange the Affair of the Poſt Offices, as far as depends on them, and hoped to terminate it ſoon to his Highneſs's Satisfaction. As to the ſecond Point, relating to the Diſpoſal of Employments, they had long ſince conſented to the Reſolutions of the States of Holland on that Head, and would, together with the other Towns, ſend in the Liſts of the Employments in their Gift, at the Time appointed for that Purpoſe. In reſpect to the third Article they ſay, that they have always, to their utmoſt, maintain'd their City and Burghers in the Poſſeſſion of all their Rights and Privileges: That they have nothing to do with the Election of the Officers of the Militia, which depends on the Council of War; and that the Demand of the Burghers, relating to the Excluſion of their Officers from the Magiſtracy, is unprecedented, and directly contrary to the conſtant Practice of all Times ſince Prince William the Firſt put their City in Poſſeſſion of its preſent Rights and Privileges. A Deputation from the States of Frieſland is arrived here with the Diploma of the hereditary Succeſſion to the Stadtholderſhip, in the Prince of Orange's Male and Female Iſſue. Count Flodorp, one of the Prince of Orange's Aid de Camps, was diſpatch'd Yeſterday to Bruſſels, with a Commiſſion from his Highneſs to Marſhal Saxe.

Notice is hereby given to the Officers and Company of his Majeſty's Ship the Deptford Storeſhip, that the remaining Produce of the Prizes Roland and Andromache, and their Cargoes, will be paid on Tueſday the 30th Inſtant, between the Hours of Nine and Three, at the King's Arms on Tower-hill: And the Shares not then demanded, will be paid at the ſame Place on the firſt Tueſday of every Month for three Years after.

Notice is hereby given to the Crew of his Majeſty's Ship the Flamborough, that was on board at the taking the French Privateers Alexander and Ricaud, that the Bounty Money will be paid at the Sun Tavern near the Monument, the firſt Saturday in September, from the Hours of Ten to Twelve; and after, every firſt Saturday in the Month, at the ſame Time, for three Years.

Notice is hereby given to the Officers and Company of his Majeſty's late Ship the Maidſtone, who were on board at the taking the Revenge, a French Privateer, and the Louiſbourg from St. Domingo, and at retaking the Dragon and Endeavour Snows, that they may receive their reſpective Shares of the Produce of the ſaid Prizes, on board the Anſon Man of War on her Arrival at Portſmouth; and the Shares not then demanded, will be paid at the Baptiſt Head Tavern in Aldermanbury, London, the firſt Wedneſday in every Month for three Years.
